Epubor PDF Merger Splitter

What's New in the Epubor PDF Merger Splitter?

Epubor PDF Merger & Splitter is a simple-to-use software utility that, as the name suggests, helps you join together two or more PDF files, as well as split them into multiple pages. It comes packed with highly intuitive options that can be handled by anyone, regardless of the previous experience with PDF processing programs. Rapid installation and intuitive GUI The setup procedure does not take a long time to finish. As for the interface, Epubor PDF Merger & Splitter opts for a simple window with an organized layout, where PDF docs can be added to the task list using either the file browser or drag-and-drop support. Seamlessly merge and split PDFs The merger list shows the name, total pages and size for each file. All you have to do is arrange the files in the preferred order, indicate the saving directory, and join them together with the click of a button. When it comes to splitting PDFs, it is suffice to point out the source file, split method (a file for every given number of pages, or specific pages), along with the output directory. There are no other notable options provided by this tool. Evaluation and conclusion The program is pretty light when it comes to CPU and memory, so it does not affect the overall performance of the machine. There were no kind of issues in our tests, since Epubor PDF Merger & Splitter did not hang, crash or pop up error dialogs. It may not be feature-rich, but it gets the job done in a simple manner. The city of Atlanta-based research firm Monitor compiled its monthly Community Health Index (CHI) study based on the percentage of residents who rate their local shopping areas as "very good" or "good." CHI is a proprietary survey that aggregates retail and other consumer data collected through interviews with residents across the city. A net average of 60 percent of metro Atlanta residents surveyed for the September CHI reported shopping in shopping areas like Hapeville and Lenox, according to the study. Monitor's latest CHI report noted that Gym City Mall has maintained its position as a "clear retail leader," as well as other nearby stores like Midtown Crossing, The Shoppes at Five Points and Lee Plaza.
