Baton Rouge Man Sentenced to 15 Years in Prison for Violent Hacking on Over 300 Computers FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE April 17, 2013 Baton Rouge Man Sentenced to 15 Years in Prison for Violent Hacking on Over 300 Computers Baton Rouge – United States Attorney Ann E. VanHorn announced that Karlys Dunn, age 20, of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, was sentenced in federal court today on charges of computer hacking and theft of services. The Hon. James J. Brady of the Eastern District of Louisiana imposed a sentence of 15 years’ imprisonment and a $50,000 fine, to be followed by 10 years of supervised release. The defendant received credit for time served. Dunn was arrested last July and pleaded guilty last August. According to court documents, Dunn committed a series of violent acts in numerous states throughout the U.S. between late January and early March 2013. Dunn was involved in at least twenty-two separate incidents of physical violence, including assaults, threats, and the use of weapons. Dunn also engaged in a variety of unauthorized activities in attempts to obtain personal information about the victims. Dunn accessed the e-mail accounts of hundreds of victims through unauthorized means, and some victims were as far away as New York, California, Oklahoma, and Alabama. Dunn accessed the personal information of some victims through brute force means, such as dictionary attacks, and accounts he gained access to were used to spam e-mails with advertising. Sentencing Dunn, U.S. District Judge Sarah S. Vance said Dunn’s conduct was “more than just a trespass.” Judge Vance said Dunn was “groomed for a role” in a child pornography ring and that he “was very much an active participant in that scheme.” “Violent cyber criminals are no different than other violent criminals – our message is simple,” said VanHorn. “Even if you hide in cyber space, stealing and/or destroying property is a violation of state and federal law and can result in arrest and imprisonment.” The investigation for this case was conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation; the United States Marshal’s Service; the United States Secret Service; and the Department of Homeland Security, 09e8f5149f
