I tried to create a message box which pop up when a function has been called. The problem is that my message box only appears after the function has been called. This is what I got so far: var mc = document.createElement("object"); function myFunction() { document.body.appendChild(mc); mc.style.border = "2px solid red"; mc.style.color = "red"; mc.style.position = "fixed"; mc.style.top = "400px"; mc.style.left = "800px"; mc.style.width = "300px"; mc.style.height = "400px"; mc.style.background = "white"; mc.style.textAlign = "center"; mc.style.padding = "50px 50px"; mc.style.fontSize = "50px"; mc.style.lineHeight = "50px"; mc.style.textDecoration = "none"; mc.style.margin = "0"; mc.style.pointerEvents = "none"; mc.style.display = "none"; mc.style.width = "1500px"; mc.style.height = "1000px"; mc.style.border = "3px solid #000000"; mc.style.borderRadius = "15px"; mc.style.paddingLeft = "40px"; mc.style.paddingTop = "50px"; mc.style.paddingBottom = "
