An Idea Finder is a tool which compares your idea with a set of ideas. You will get a set of ideas which you are working on, along with the similarities, differences and suggestion. You can compare your idea with a group of ideas in minutes, not weeks.

We are looking for a search engine specialist for a international company specialized in IT. You must be a searcher and you must know languages to operate the search engine and do the seo job. The post is long term and you have to work for a minimum of one year with the company, because it is a start up, you are the first employee. This is a small and simple tool to keep track of your gmail mails. It is similar to the email task list except it allows you to add comments and attach files to your mails. It is designed to help you be aware of what you receive in your gmail and also to help you do your work. I need a full text search and site mapping application. I would like to provide a search engine that allows users to search for single words, phrases, multiple words or phrases, based on Boolean and fuzzy logic. I would also like to be able to rank these results based on relevancy and position within the search result. The site map would need to be of the same functionality. I need a search engine to find documents on a topic. Everyday a new article (text) is added to my Google Drive. I want to search a long list of topics. If there is an article about the topic I want to have a hyperlink to it. It would be nice to have some filter possibilities, e.g. I want to search for only articles from "2009" and "2010" I need a very basic email list management system like MailChimp. I would like the design to be responsive, so that it will be very nice when it is viewed on a mobile device. I have seen several projects and their designs but they are complex and I would like a simple one. ...built after our specifications, with a custom search engine and a
