FREE MANA

You can restore Mana once per wave plus once per rank when you click "Restore Mana".

Use the "Restore Mana" option at the bottom of the screen to restore Mana. Please be sure to do this unless you are absolutely positive you will be able to restore it at the start of the wave, as you cannot restore mana between waves.

If you decide to restore your mana, you do not need to use all of your mana at one time. Keep in mind that it will cost a certain amount of mana per rank of mana restored (refer to above picture).

DEATH STATE

When receiving a critical hit, you automatically enter into the Death State (approximately 1 minute).

In the Death State, you cannot move except for flying, and you cannot use skills during battle except for the skill that caused the Death State.

The Death State allows you to release your accumulated mana as a special skill or activate the "Death State Begin" skill to immediately return to the battle field.

In this generation there are many methods of teaching the Latin language. This course focuses on producing fluent readers, writers, and speakers of Latin. WEEK I: INTRODUCTION TO LANGUAGE Through real world examples of common written and spoken Latin, participants will learn the basics of language. We cover Vocabulary, Introduction to Accents, Punctuation (also known as SNAX), Tense Constructions, and Modal Conjunctions. WEEK II: LEXICOGRAPHY The study of language consists of reading and writing. We will read several interconnected texts: an original text, a translation, and a critical analysis. We will also create original texts throughout the semester. By the end of the class, participants will be able to speak/write in Latin as a native speaker. WEEK III: ETYMOLOGY AND LEXICOGRAPHY At this time we will focus on vocabularies to realize the prototypical concepts of language. Our aim is to produce the highest quality work by forming a written lexicon that consists of affixes, roots, colors
