What's new:

- Tactics - Play the way you want with new interactive coaching from within the game. We've added specific Tactical View options designed specifically for your coaching experience. Visualise play through goalkeepers, defenders and attackers, and see which player has the ball or who is open. Cut view has been simplified to help you see the attack map more clearly. Control defence with the new ability to adjust every area of positioning and rotation in defence. Create custom strategies like 'Attack on the wings and score a goal in the second half' to kick off the match. For MLS and La Liga players, implement your preferred tactical formation with the new Man Coaching option that allows you to show your strategies and tactics to your players by changing formation, subbing and positioning.
- Livestreaming - We're offering an all-new full-featured companion app. For the first time, players of any platform can live stream their gameplay to the web using the new 'I'm on it!' attachment. Use this feature to broadcast gameplay from the game, or from within a club.
- LGA - Over the past year, we've invested a lot of time and effort improving the matchday experience. In FIFA 22, for the first time, commentators can also be removed and any speaker you're using can be set up to have separate prompts and indicator lights. Our new matchday features help you make the best decisions before, during and after games. Lastly, in a big change to save disk space, we've switched from full screen to a scaled-back version, and extracted a host of other potential improvements from this approach.
- Soccer Schools - Under the direction of qualified

- instructors, players can now learn about the game and master soccer skills as part of the game. Whether you're a player, manager or coach, the new 'Football Schools' tool lets you improve skills in your own-time. Choose from over 100 practical lessons, from receiving, passing and setting up a pass to converting a cross and shooting with power.
- Create/Edit your stadiums - Build a stadium to host your matches or train with friends and your team. Create custom digital concepts,
