Then again, it also works great with the graphics-if anyone bothered to bother making textures and the like. a note about the homes. the sprites that you see can be either killed depending on certain events. the version of the home where you search... the room you search eventually changes with the changes of the house. each one has a story behind them and a matching owner. the owner is the one you are playing as... not the one you had in charge of the house. example: the home where you search the bedroom. when you go to the bedroom, it changes to the parents bedroom. behind the door, if you go through a peephole to take a closer look, it opens up to the parents bedroom (I'll make an actual video of it to proof it) the only problem with this is that the owners of the house change/if you are playing as another person (other than the owner.)Easy and Crisp Blackberry and Chocolate Chip Cookie Recipe The quintessential picnic cookie is the simple chocolate chip or chocolate sandwich cookie. But there's something about the blackberry that amps up all the sensations your mouth is receiving! Use fresh or dried berries to get just the right, zingy flavor. I don't know about you, but I love everything about summer. It's the magical weather in which to eat refreshments and snacks outside - especially in my garden. Food filled with fruit and sunshine. It always reminds me of my youth. I remember the annual summer parks in which we stood around eating slushes and no doubt had enough cotton

What's new:

Lots of new content coming to Zion-A. I recommend you sign up for the newsletter (that's in the sidebar) because there's going to be (a) a mega last story for Book 1, (b) a surprise that'll air during the holidays and (c) a reveal that I'm excited about but that, for obvious reasons, I can't share too yet. Right now, though, I'm gonna be on inactive, so there might be a little less to chat about, but there'll be some posts soon again. I promise. We're gonna build you back up some more, Ry, and since the primaries' only three days away I figured I'd throw you a few quick Q&A's. 1. If you don't know, can you just tell us how long you've known Light for? I wrote this: Now we know. And I get to go look at caps locked words. I've known Light since the Second World War. I'm on right now, so if you want to chat I'm either on @ryedzgnwmute or here. 3. I really like your name for yourself. Light is such a vague name, but then there's your name on stuff. Zeliria. So, as far as name go on you, what's with that? My name means "heart of the world." As for the whole Light and Zeliria thing, some people see that as paradoxical or a contradiction or opposites but I don't. I think they're both parts of the same thing. Light is a shield, Zeliria is life. Light helps guide and protect and keep guard over humanity. Zeliria gives life, power and magic and strength to all life. 4. Been thinking about all these new people saying, "He's pro-fairy." Why do you feel like you can call out people for that? It's really
