: Part 3 Welcome to the third series of the Flower Challenge! This time, I'm trying to teach you the technical side of this floral design and crochet. I'm using the choices the designer made, be it a colour within a pair of colours or a totally different one. Sewing Needle and Thread Hooking Up...with Care Step 1: Count Increase and Decrease If you've been following my Flower Challenge series, then you may remember me talking about the foundation chain in the video tutorial.
