caption More than a million people have been killed in the fighting since 2015 The UN Security Council has been told the Syrian government's use of barrel bombs - airdropped bombs that kill indiscriminately - has increased. "The scale of this military tactic, which has devastating effects on civilians, is unprecedented," UN Special Envoy Staffan de Mistura told the 15-nation council. Mr De Mistura is in New York to brief the Security Council on the Syrian peace talks, which remain deadlocked. The government of President Bashar al-Assad says the talks are failing because of the rebels' insistence on dealing with the external opposition. The rebels say that Mr Assad is not negotiating in good faith - a charge the government rejects. Monday's briefing offered a sobering update on the peace talks since they resumed on 8 April. It said the Syrian government was "further escalating the use of shelling and barrel bombing" as the talks continued. Barrel bombs are improvised devices that are dropped from helicopters or fixed-wing aircraft. They are filled with shrapnel, explosives and other deadly substances. Image copyright AP Image

For the first time in the history of the Province, a Protestant political party will participate in the provincial election. It will be unveiled during the day of Easter Sunday (April 6), at the Holy Cross Cathedral in Kingston, Pa. In its founding document, the "White Christian Party" will offer the following description of its purpose, mission and purpose: "The White Christian Party (WCP) will win the election by upholding the values that make us White Christian Canadians and show that it is high time we formed a party that will speak for all citizens, and for those who have been overlooked by previous parties," says the party. WCP advocates for the following: A fair and just immigration policy that welcomes refugees and immigrants who share our Christian values. Being a White country that promotes the values of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Retaining our homeland, but realizing that it is not possible to be truly sovereign if we are not good neighbours. A free and independent Sovereign British Canada, with a strong and independent Ukrainian people. A Canadian party that does not leave our British heritage, our culture, and our traditions behind when we leave the country. A WCP that will ensure that our constitution is upheld and protected for Canadians of all backgrounds. The creation of more than 1 million new jobs. The building of new infrastructure. Construction of new schools and hospitals. A WCP that will ensure that no one is forgotten or left behind. Healthcare that is accessible and affordable for all. A fair and more equitable sharing of the public wealth.
