now, the sounds in the reggaeton refill are very fresh and funky, but when you download the demo from the reggaeton refill page, you will see that the sounds are no where near finished. the samples are a mix of a variety of styles, but the drum loops are mostly of the reggae variety. although the sounds are used in the demo songs, more than half of the samples are simply samples of the original loop, without any editing or processing. for the most part, the sounds in the reggaeton refill are not finished and need some more work. the sounds in this demo pack are also fairly short, and while they are great for teaching how to use the sounds, they do not give you enough time to really create a song. with this in mind, the only thing this demo pack offers is a great way to learn how to use the sounds and drum loops in the reggaeton refill demo, and if you do not have the time to work with the reggaeton refill sounds, then you should definitely download this demo pack. the sounds in this demo pack are great for teaching you how to make the most of these sounds, and this demo pack is a great demo to start with. with the final release of this pack, the sounds will definitely be more finished and the demo songs will be longer. you can download the demo pack from the reggaeton refill page. if you like this demo pack, you can purchase the full version for just $10.00. this is a very good deal, and you will get the full version of the reggaeton refill as well as all the reason 6 packs that have been released.

Propellerhead The Salazar Brothers Reggaeton REFiLL 1

the reggaeton refill is over 360 megabytes of samples, loops and comes with 220 drum & percussion rex files, 75 nn-xt sampler patches in categories like drums, fx, stabs, vinyl fx, vocals and more including midi files and 20 song starter demo tracks. it is a great toolbox for reason users looking for that reggaeton sound. reggaeton is a form of dance music which became popular with latin american (latino) youth during the early 1990s and spread to north american, european, asian, and australian audiences during the first few years of the 21st century. reggaeton blends jamaican music influences of reggae and dancehall with those of latin america, such as bomba and plena, as well as that of hip hop. the music is also combined with rapping (generally) in spanish. reggaeton has given the hispanic youth, starting with those of panama and puerto rico, a musical genre that they can consider their own. the influence of this genre has spread to the wider latino communities in the united states, as well as the latin american audience. a key element to the music is the beats used the dembow (named after 'dem bow', the song that first popularised the style) and in this regard the reggaeton refill does a good job, as there is a good collection of dembow rex2 drum loops, as well as a smaller number of other dancehall-style drum loops. these are complemented by an excellent collection of percussion loops based around bongos, congas, guiro, shakers, surdu and timbales, amongst others. both the percussion sounds and the range of drum sounds used are also very good, and the redrum kits and nnxt drum patches would make an excellent addition to any hip-hop or r&b sound collection. these include some big, booming kicks and a range of acoustic and electronic snares. 5ec8ef588b
