Dawn Peach said she has always had an interest in acting but had to put it to one side due to her recent pregnancy. The mum-to-be said when she discovered that she was going to have to make a choice, she thought about her career and put her acting dreams to one side to ensure she gives her full attention to raising her child. "My first ever role was in 'Blue Blood' when I was about 13. I love animals so when I was little I loved to do funny voices. "I love being on stage and I wanted to act since I was very young. I was playing all these different characters as a child, one was a princess, the other was a boy and the other one was a doll." Her pregnancy, however, has had her rethink what her career goals could be. "I was thinking about it but because I was pregnant I thought well I need to work. "I thought this is the time I can give it the rest of my life and it can be very stressful, especially if you're expecting. So I've put that to one side and I'm going to make sure that I have a good strong relationship with my baby. "I have to make sure that the baby is well looked after and have a good life." Dawn is now 29 weeks along with her son and said it has been a long time since she has been able to "just sit back" and enjoy things. The mother-to-be said she is very excited to take on the role of actress in the upcoming film "Homely", an Australian film based on a true story. "I'm really excited. I've watched the film and I'm looking forward to it. "I love that the characters are so different. Most things in films are the same and when you watch a film you usually find the same faces in the same roles. "I love them 79a2804d6b
